Terms and Conditions

By completing and signing this document the client agrees to abide by the following terms and conditions upon being accepted by KRSV administration. The following are in effect from commission acceptance until either completion or termination of said commission.

#1.1: Both the client and KRSV reserve the right to terminate the commission at any time. In the event KRSV terminates the commission, a full refund is to be returned to the client. In the event the client terminates the commission, any advance paid will not be refunded should production have already begun. The refund does not account for any transfer fees. Refunds are to be paid as soon as possible.

#1.2: Should the commission be terminated, all client-sourced media used is to be immediately destroyed.

#2.1: During post-production, the client may be sent a draft edition to review. They may request alterations to the product at this time in accordance to their specifications. The client may request alterations to an edition a maximum of five (5) times.

#3.1: While the commission is in production, KRSV may not share any privately sourced media involved without the client's consent.

#3.2: After completion of the commission, KRSV may store all production media for a maximum of fourteen (14) days, before it is to be destroyed, unless requested otherwise by the client.

#3.3: If stored, the client may request any production media used with the exception of KRSV proprietary media. This includes software used and software project files.

#4.1: After completion of the commission, KRSV must keep the completed product media available to the client for a minimum of fourteen (14) days.
